Sir:

On November 21, 2005, Applicants submitted Amendment A, which included a new fee calculation for the claims. Applicants used the fee amounts for when the application was filed (October 29, 2003), and only submitted $61. Using the current fee amounts, the correct amount submitted should have been $150.

On November 28, 2005, a charge of $239 was made to the above-referenced deposit account. In the fee calculation, The Office used the current fee amounts but did not use the small entity fees entitled to the Applicants.

Because the correct fee for the claims should have been $150, and the Applicants already submitted $61, the above-referenced deposit account should have only been charged $89 instead of $239. Applicants therefore believe that the additional $150 charge to the above-referenced deposit account, which is the difference between the actual charge of $239 and the correct charge of $89, is improper.

Applicants respectfully request a refund in the total amount of $150.00. We request that $150.00 be credited to Deposit Account No. 07-2069. A copy of our monthly deposit account statement is enclosed, as well as a photocopy of the fee calculation for Amendment A and a copy of the response postcard.

Should there be any questions regarding this Request for a Refund, please contact the undersigned attorney at the telephone number listed below.

Respectfully submitted,

GREER, BURNS & CRAIN, LTD.
